

Call for applications

Grant Management Assistant (FG III)

EIT (Budapest)

Ref.: EIT/CA/2015/107

The European Institute of Innovation and Technology (EIT) is an independent EU body set up in 2008. We enhance Europe's ability to innovate by nurturing entrepreneurial talent and supporting new ideas. Our mission is to:

- Contribute to the competitiveness of Europe, its sustainable economic growth and job creation by promoting and strengthening synergies and cooperation among businesses, education institutions and research organisations.
- Create favourable environments for creative thoughts, to enable world-class innovation and entrepreneurship to thrive in Europe.

The EIT is an integral part of Horizon 2020, the EU's Framework Programme for Research and Innovation. Horizon 2020 is a key pillar of the Innovation Union – a Europe 2020 flagship initiative that aims to enhance Europe's global competitiveness.

The EIT is now organising a call for expressions of interest with a view to establishing a reserve list for Contract Staff (CA) for the profile of Grant Management Assistant. The place of employment will be Budapest, where the EIT seat is located.

More information about the EIT and its activities can be found on: <http://eit.europa.eu>.

1 The job profile

Reporting to the Head of Unit "Partnerships Management" (PAM), the Grant Management Assistant will be part of the "Monitoring" section. The PAM Unit contributes to consolidating, fostering growth and impact of the current and future Knowledge and Innovation Communities (KICs). It manages the programming and grant allocation process, supports the KICs during the implementation through the development of cross-KIC activities, and ensures efficient reporting and payment processes leading to a high level of grant assurance through adequate audits and controls.

The jobholder will contribute to and support activities in the fields of monitoring and knowledge management related to the EIT grants to its KICs.

1.1 Tasks

The Assistant will contribute to the EIT's work by performing the following tasks and activities:

- Supporting the management and monitoring of grants to the EIT Knowledge and Innovation Communities (KICs);
- Supporting the implementation of the EIT monitoring strategy and contributing to draft reviews and analytical reports;
- Assisting in the management and improvement of the EIT knowledge management system and monitoring tools (including grant information systems) and supporting the EIT Performance Management System co-ordinator;
- Working with all EIT teams and KICs to facilitate the sharing of knowledge and information, and following and contributing to technical discussions relevant for the area of responsibility;
- Assisting in the development and maintenance of databases and processes related to grant management;
- Contributing to the enhancement of procedures and document management at the EIT;
- Supporting the EIT management through briefings.

2 Eligibility criteria

2.1 General conditions

By the closing date of this call candidates must:

- be a national of an EU Member State;
- enjoy their full rights as citizens¹;
- have fulfilled any obligations imposed by national laws concerning military service;
- meet the character requirements for the duties involved;
- be physically fit to perform their duties².

2.2 Education

Candidates are required to have

- a post-secondary education attested by a diploma, or

⁵ Bulgarian, Croatian, Czech, Danish, Dutch, English, Estonian, Finnish, French, Irish, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Latvian, Lithuanian, Maltese, Polish, Portuguese, Romanian, Slovak, Slovenian, Spanish, Swedish.

4 The Selection process

4.1 How to apply

Please consult the Guide for Applicants on the EIT website. It contains detailed instructions to help you submit your application correctly.

Only applications submitted through the EU CV Online system⁶ will be accepted.

To apply, you must register in the EU CV Online system via the link provided on the EIT website, and follow all instructions concerning the various stages of the procedure. Applications shall be made in English. Before applying, you should carefully check whether you meet all the eligibility criteria.

It is your responsibility to complete your online registration in time. We strongly advise you not to wait until the last few days before applying, since heavy Internet traffic or a problem with the Internet connection could lead to your online registration being interrupted before you complete it, thereby obliging you to repeat the whole process. Once the deadline has passed, you will no longer be able to register.

No supporting documents are required at this stage – these will be required later from candidates invited to an interview (see section 5.3).

On completion of your online registration, you will receive on screen a registration number, which you must note. Once you receive this number, the registration process is finished. This will be your reference number in all matters concerning your application. Please note that if you do not receive a number, your application has not been registered!

An acknowledgement of your application will be sent to the e-mail address indicated in your application. It is your responsibility to verify that you provide the correct e-mail address.

Deadline for applications: 14 September 2015 (12:00 noon Budapest time)

5 Steps of the selection procedure

5.1 Admission to the selection procedure

After the deadline for online registration, the selection committee will check the submitted applications against the general and specific conditions described in section 2. Applications satisfying these conditions will then be assessed against the selection criteria described in section 3.

⁶The EU CV Online, managed by the European Commission, is the tool used by the EIT for recruitment purposes. Instructions of use can be found on the EIT's Guide for Applicants, on the EIT website.

5.2 Initial assessment of the applications

The selection committee will assess each eligible application according to the qualifications and training, professional experience and motivation of the candidate with respect to the profile described in section 1.1.

5.3 Interview

Upon completion of the profiles' evaluation, the 8 most suitable candidates for the post - based on the highest scores in the pre-selection screening - will be invited to an interview, which will be organised in Budapest. Details of the time, date and address of the interview will be communicated to the candidates in due time.

Candidates invited to an interview will be requested to submit by email, prior to the interview, a non-certified copy of their diploma(s) and evidence of their professional experience, clearly indicating the starting and finishing dates, the function(s) and the exact nature of the duties carried out.

Candidates will also be requested to submit a non-official translation of all supporting documents written in a language other than English.

Prior to contract signature, the successful candidate(s) will be required to provide original versions of documents proving the eligibility criteria.

The selection committee will carry out an assessment of candidates invited to an interview according to the selection criteria described in section 3. The interview and the written test will be conducted in English. Any other languages indicated in the application form might be tested. Note: native English speakers will be tested to prove their second language skills.

Candidates will also be required to sit a written test in English on the day of the interview. This might take the form of a case study, multiple-choice questionnaire and/or oral presentation.

The written tests may consist of the following components, in accordance with the level and profile of the position advertised:

- Specific competencies with reference to the profile
- General aptitudes and language abilities to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties
- Knowledge of European integration and institutions; the European Institute of Innovation and Technology

These components can be combined.

5.4 Verification of documents and scrutiny

The application of candidates invited to the interview will be checked against supporting documents provided, in order to confirm the accuracy and eligibility of the application.

If, at any stage in the procedure, it is established that the information in an application has been knowingly falsified, the candidate will be disqualified from the selection process.

Candidates will also be disqualified if they:

- do not meet all the eligibility criteria;
- do not provide all the required supporting documents.

5.5 Reserve list

The selection committee will place the most suitable eligible candidates on a draft reserve list. This draft will be submitted to the Appointing Authority of the EIT for approval. The adopted reserve list, which will be in order of merit, will be valid until 31 December 2015. Reserve lists may be extended by decision of the Appointing Authority of the EIT. Prior to being offered a post, candidates on a reserve list may be required to undergo further evaluation by the EIT (e.g. including a further interview).

Inclusion on a reserve list does not imply any entitlement to employment in the EIT. Moreover, recruitment will be subject to budgetary availability.

5.6 Information

The text of this Call for applications contains all the information required. Nevertheless, if you have a question, please consult the Guide for Applicants on the EIT website. If you have further questions, please contact the EIT via jobs@eit.europa.eu, clearly mentioning the reference of the vacancy notice, your registration number and the nature of your request.

Please note that due to the large volume of applications received, only candidates selected for the interviews will be contacted.
